Jed Leiber, Grammy-nominated songwriter, BAFTA award winner and NightBird Recording Studios owner, takes great pride in his facilities extensive remodel. In collaboration with world renowned acoustician George Augspurger, the new production rooms create a warm atmosphere more like a private VIP lounge than a recording studio. Everything is top of the line at NightBird, suited for all possible needs and designed to sound as amazing as it looks.

“AS A MUSICIAN, MY GOAL WAS TO CREATE A TRULY UNIQUE RECORDING EXPERIENCE THAT IS AS COMFORTABLE AS IT IS INSPIRING.”

NightBird, the studios at the Sunset Marquis Hotel & Villas has provided the most luxurious and unique haven for songwriters, producers, actors, film composers and musicians alike, since opening its doors in 1993. Artists as diverse as Aerosmith, Ozzy Ozbourne, Madonna, Colin Farrell, Morgan Freeman, and Kevin Costner have called NightBird home.

Surrounding Digidesigns flagship icon consol (running protocols HD6 and Logic Studio) are six LCD HD displays, measuring up to 65", and an extraordinary array of vintage equipment and cutting edge digital audio and video technology. NightBird, the studios you've dreamed about.

SUNSET MARQUIS

Discretion, elegance and luxury go hand in hand with NightBird's location on the grounds of the Sunset Marquis. All hotel amenities are offered to those utilizing NightBird's compound including delicious 24-hour meal and beverage service, valet and concierge services, as well as massage and spa treatments. When recording or writing, studio guests may take a break to write pool side or step into Bar 1200 for a cocktail. For those who require discretion, talent may go directly from the underground garage to the studios with no eyes upon them. It offers all of the services of a world-class music studios with all the amenities of a first-class hotel

The Sunset Marquis is known as the place "certain A-list actors and musicians" like to live, which makes NightBird an enticing location for film voice-overs, editing film scores, writing music, and recording. NightBird also provides a unique and elegant environment for photo shoots, recording interviews and high-tech conference presentations in the heart of West Hollywood, California, making it the only facility of its kind and caliber in a hotel.

Unique. Even by Hollywood Standards.
